Ominous Rumor Mongering

May 19, 2009 By Paul Dalton

The proverbial word on the street is that the San Francisco Police Department is prepping for a California Supreme Court ruling on Thursday on the institutionalized bigotry of Proposition 8. Reportedly crowd control barriers are being moved in to the Castro district.

Rumors have been gaining steam over the past week or so, including a false twitter rumor that it had been overturned.
Everyone I talk to thinks the news will be bad, mostly based on the questoning by the justices.
I have no love for the institution of marriage, but this is simply a equal protection issue.
and in a poetic turn, Thursday is the anniversary of the White Night Riots.
