Permanent Nutface Gary

May 17, 2008 By Shawn Decker

You know what is great about Team Supersnack?

You get to meet people like Rob Lathan. He's been doing the Supersnack Benefit show for the last three years, using his comedy to kick things off and get people psyched. This year, he's walking with the team, but not as his stilts as he does in his routine.

There's a rumor that he's not walking as Rob Lathan, but as one of his characters, Permanent Nutface Gary. Meet Gary by watching the video below.

Positively Yours,

Shawn
