A Poem “To the Broken”

Because I am rooting for you

May 28, 2020 By Glenna McCarthy

To the Broken

I am rooting for you

May you learn to smell the roses again Possibly for the first time…
May you learn to find happiness Without the aid of drugs and alcohol

May a love so great come into your life that it cannot be denied or scrutinized Your face will glow and heart will sing and it will take away the pain and skeptics'

Your spirit has been stifled and your heart Corroded I pray that you may re-capture your Innocence that was taken away

Although the World has shamed you Remember you were just A child trying to find Your way in a maze
Of chutes and ladders

May the wind bring a burst of freshness and Spring and not a new contaminant or news of despair

To the broken

I am rooting for you

Because you are not alone
