Rachel Maddow Pays Tribute to Marty

February 9, 2009 By Peter Staley

I've been meaning to post this since it ran on MSNBC on January 30th. It's not every day that a leading television journalist pays tribute to an AIDS treatment activist, so it was wonderful hearing Rachel Maddow spend two and a half minutes telling her audience about the life and work of Martin Delaney, the founder of Project Inform (see my posts about Marty here and here).

Her tribute starts at about the 1:50 mark in this section of her show:
