Republicans VS. Planned Parenthood

March 4, 2011 By Shawn Decker

One of the reasons why I'll probably never be able to cast a vote for a Republican is because of their views on sex, whether it's institutionalized homophobia (in which they obsessively cannot get the sexual imagery of homosexual acts out of their minds- hmmmm) or their opposition to open dialogue about safer sex.

Here, the Daily Show explains the most recent attacks on Planned Parenthood by House Republicans, who should just stay out of the way and let PP talk to their teenagers about sex since they refuse to do so.
