Running in the Olympic Torchbearer Relay

January 18, 2010 By Eric Sawyer

January 20th, 8am in Calgary I will be carrying the Olympic Torch in the Olympic Relay as the flame crosses Canada toward the Vancouver Winter Games.

I am representing people living with HIV, UNAIDS & UN Plus as part of the UNAIDS/Olympic Committee's HIV Awareness Campaign.

I will provide a link to the Press Release once cleared to explain the purpose of my involvement later in the week.

If you want to watch me run, tune in online tomorrow at 8:00am MST.

Here's the link to the webcam:
