Synthetic Division “Out of Time” Music Video

April 4, 2011 By Shawn Decker

Here it is, my band’s first ever music video, featuring stop motion and Playmobil toys- including a hospital! Funny thing is, the inspiration for this song came in part from a hospital visit in late 2009… so the creator Dirk Roth’s concept really fits the song and release perfectly.

I hope you enjoy the video and share it with friends!

Positively Yours,
Shawn
