Thank you #2015 USCA

#2015USCA a great meeting. According to Vanicy.com, #2015USCA was one of the top 100 “trending topics” on Twitter last week. Continue to post your comments and pictures at #2015USCA or #NMAC.

britnidanielle Last week was dope. I traveled to DC to attend the US Conf. On AIDS. I learned so much at #2015usca & met so many DOPE people I can hardly explain it all.

But now it's back to work. #HappyMonday everyone!

thefabgiver I came, I hugged, I learned... #2015USCA, it has been real! See everyone next year. P.S. I love my newest @greaterthanids t-shirt. I think this makes number six in my collection ? 2d

love letter to USCA. MTV also sent this great email, they were @ USCA shooting a documentary.

We captured some great footage of Mr. Barton and Mr. Sharp at the conference.

We interviewed several of their peers who are also participants of the youth program. I wanted to tell you that each of them spoke very highly of you and all of them indicated that their participation in the program had changed their lives to some extent.

The very fact that USCA and the youth program brought Kristopher and Kahlib together is a testament to the good work you all are doing. MTV and Viacom INC. look forward to having the opportunity to highlight that work in the documentary.

NMAC's new mission, vision and name are part of the agency's commitment to "lead with race" and to fight for racial justice and reduce health disparities. They are part of the DNA of the agency and a key component of future meetings.
