Time’s Running Out: RISE ABOVE HIV Shirt Update

October 30, 2012 By Shawn Decker

Thanks to everyone who has already ordered a t-shirt!  I’ve extended the time frame to pre-order to Monday.  If you order, I’ll even throw in a copy of my latest Synthetic Division album, Numb to the Numbers.  And a Rise Above HIV button.  This package keeps getting sweeter and sweeter!

Hope this message finds you all safe from Hurricane Sandy.  The weather prevented Gwenn and I from making a trip to Ohio to speak this evening- basically the path from here to there was riddled with high winds, snowstorms and power outages.  If any of you are experiencing that, our hearts go out to you and hope you’ve found safe and warm shelter from the elements.

Positively Yours,
Shawn
